WHO WE ARE

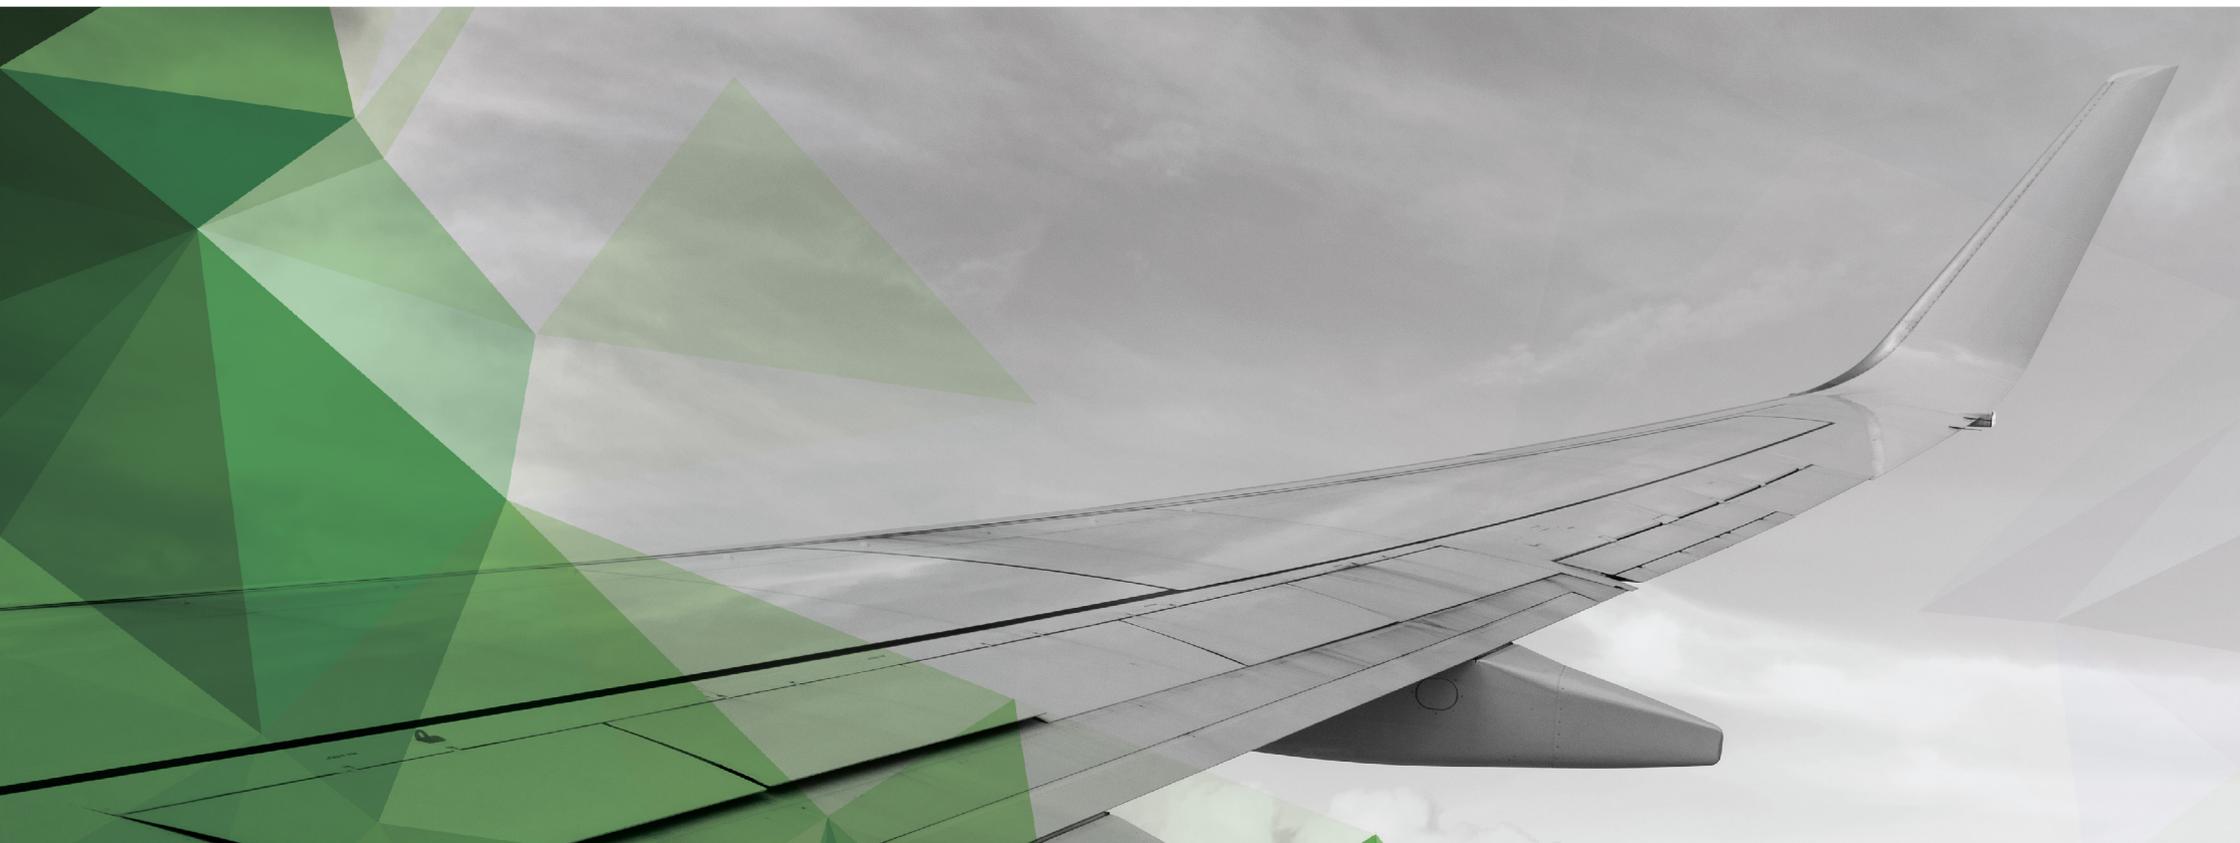

GFA has established itself as one of the fastest-growing self-made aviation parts suppliers in the Middle East within the shortest time. The industry expertise that comes with the team, along with its commitment to quality, is backed by certifications such as ASA 100, ISO 9001:2015, and AS9120B. These certifications have played a fundamental role in shaping the solutions offered to meet aircraft requirements, guaranteeing consistency and efficiency over 10 years in the market.

The business has been structured to save the two most treasured assets of the clientele: time and value for money. To do so, GFA has proudly relied on its comprehensive, high-quality inventory, extensive industry knowledge, and experience coupled with powerful parts research capability and worldwide logistics channels. Ranging from factory new to new surplus to overhauled and serviceable parts, GFA provides total spare support across the globe.

VISION

GFA's vision is to become the undisputed numero uno choice in the aviation industry, renowned as the world's most dependable aircraft spares provider committed to safety and quality.
